

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE: (August 3, 2009)

Thrice- J. Shea, Tanner Goldbeck & Larry Mills Art Reception and Opening

Saturday August 8, at the AFS Gallery, from 6:00 pm-10:00 pm. The show runs from August 8 through September 12.

The evening includes DJ sets by Face the Music.

Thrice will reunite Shea, Goldbeck, and Mills; core members of the Haley Collective. The Haley Collective was started in Santa Barbara in the 1990's by a small group of relocated artists from across the country. According to J. Shea, "The Haley Street Collective acted as a catalyst for people to get out on the streets: to hold more events, support local shows, and to enjoy the energy and interaction." Shea elaborates, "The Haley Collective created its own unsanctioned energy involving all sorts of mixed media: from paintings, photography, sculpture and collage, to music, projections, hot rods and art cars."

Larry Mills says that the artists will be, "Breaking it down to the bare bones...we will be exhibiting work as a threesome only. It's all going down at Art From Scrap, which is located in the same neighborhood where the collective joined forces for the first time."

Tanner Goldbeck adds, "If you're raging around Santa Barbara Saturday August 8th, stop by and stare at some new creations.... and hang out for a bit."

Art From Scrap: Art From Scrap is Santa Barbara's Environmental Education and Art Center. The AFS Gallery is located upstairs at Art From Scrap. Rotating shows hang throughout the year bringing together art lovers, collectors and local artists.
